

What Freedom Means To Me

One of the most important freedoms that we have is the freedom to vote. A long time ago, women and black people could not vote. Black people and women weren't allowed to run for president either, but then somebody changed that and now our new president is a black person!

Another important freedom we have is the freedom of speech. There was a time a long time ago, if you didn't like what the king said, you would either be killed or put in jail. But now if you didn't like what the president did, or will do, you can vote against it, or protest it. And you wouldn't be killed or put in jail.

There are many, many other freedoms, like the freedom of religion or the freedom of the press. If there were no freedoms we would all be slaves and we would be killed and all sorts of evil stuff will happen to us! And that is what I think of freedom. The end.
